

HELENA RUBINSTEIN FOUNDATION

LIST OF GRANTS PAID

JUNE 1, 2011 - SEPTEMBER 30, 2011

American Friends of the Tel Aviv Museum of Art

New York, New York

To maintainance of the Helena Rubinstein Pavilion at the Tel Aviv Museum of Art in Israel.

$250,000

The Animal Medical Center

New York, New York

To support the Center's Internship Program of the Insitute for Postgraduate Education. In recognition of this grant, the Center will name its Intern Neurology Lecture Series in honor of Helena Rubinstein.

100,000

The Bank Street College of Education

New York, New York

To establish the Helena Rubinstein School for Children Scholarship Endowment Fund.

500,000

Center for Constitutional Rights

New York, New York

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Fellowship for Women's Justice.

500,000

The City University of New York

New York, New York

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Scholarship Fund to provide financial aid to students enrolled in vocational training courses throughout the University's Division of Adult and Continuing Education.

1,000,000

Columbia University

New York, New York

To establish an endowment fund for the Helena Rubinstein Professorship in the natural sciences.

2,000,000

Doctors Without Borders USA

New York, New York

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Emergency Fund for Children to help respond to emergencies that disproportionately affect children, such as nutritional crises, epidemics and, natural disasters.

1,000,000

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center

New York, New York

To support breast cancer research. In recognition of this grant, the rehabilitation suite at the Evelyn H. Lauder Breast and Imaging Center will be named in honor of Helena Rubinstein.

300,000

The Miami Foundation, Inc.

Miami, Florida

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Philanthropic Fund to support nonprofit organizations working in the areas of community services, education, arts/arts-in-education, and health.

$4,000,000

The New York Community Trust

New York, New York

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Fund to support nonprofit charitable and educational organizations.

2,000,000

The New York Public Library

New York, New York

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Endowment Fund for the purchase of books for children and teens. In recognition of this grant, the Children's Story Room at the Library's Stephen A. Schwarzman Building will be named in honor of Helena Rubinstein.

1,000,000

New York Studio School

New York, New York

To establish an endowment fund to support an annual Helena Rubinstein Scholarship for a female student pursuing a MFA degree.

100,000

The Rockefeller University

New York, New York

To support breast cancer research. In recognition of this grant, a young woman scientist in the University's Laboratory of Cell Biology and Genetics will be named the Helena Rubinstein Postdoctoral Fellow.

500,000

Stanford Graduate School of Business

Stanford, California

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Fellowship Fund to provide fellowships for two or three students a year, with a preference for women in entrepreneurship.

1,000,000

WNET.ORG

New York, New York

To support the broadcast, production, and distribution of children's programming.

1,000,000

The Roy and Niuta Titus Foundation

New York, New York

To establish the Helena Rubinstein Fund to support nonprofit organizations working in the areas of community services, education, arts/arts-in-education, and health.

2,000,000

Whitney Museum of American Art

New York, New York

To establish an endowment fund to support the Helena Rubinstein Visiting Faculty of the Independent Study Program, a training and professional development opportunity for students pursuing careers in the arts.

1,000,000

Total$18,250,000